** A SPECIAL WELCOME TO PARENTS. If you have brought children with you today, we are delighted to have them with us. Please sit where you can see comfortably and follow what's going on. There is an area at the back of church (the 'Blue Corner') with colouring sheets and quiet toys for you to use if needed. You will find toilets, including baby changing facility, through the Vestry.

Please switch mobile phones off (or put on silent) during the Service

Thought for the weekend: Don't panic, don't panic!

The message of Jesus this weekend is be on our guard but don't panic. We are to be alert and watchful. We are to rely fully on God, and we are to live out the teaching of Jesus even as bombs, literal or figurative fall around us. This is not a time for fear, Jesus bids us remain unafraid, and to confront the hatred, the suspicion, and the darkness of this present age. Now more than ever people need to hear the good news and need to find communities of faith where they are welcome.

These are not just the words of a motivational speaker. When Jesus tells his followers that there is no need to worry, this is not because we need positive thinking, rather because he will be with us. We will encounter strife, but at such times Jesus calls us to trust and stand firm. Jesus calls us to have endurance and trust that he abides with us. When times of testing come, Jesus promises to give us the strength that we need. This is not a case of enduring through thick and thin and pushing ourselves along, this is a wonderful reminder that we are never alone.

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEKEND: this is a prayer for peace in our time that was written by William Temple, a former Archbishop of Canterbury.

Let us pray that in ourselves and in others suspicion may give place to trust, and bitterness to goodwill; and that we may all become trustworthy, whether we work with hand or brain. Let us pray that God will grant peace in our time, and give us abundantly of his Holy Spirit, whose fruits are love and joy and peace. Amen

Bell Ringers: Thank you to our Bell Ringers.
