We have a hearing induction loop and the service is livestreamed. PLEASE NOTE: If you do not wish to be seen on camera, the North Aisle (by the Blue Corner) is out of view, and communion can be brought to You. Just mention this to one of our Welcomers

** A SPECIAL WELCOME TO PARENTS. If you have brought children with you today, we are delighted to have them with us. Please sit where you can see comfortably and follow what's going on. There is an area at the back of church (the 'Blue Corner') with colouring sheets and quiet toys for you to use if needed. You will find toilets, including baby changing facility, through the Vestry.

Please switch mobile phones off (or put on silent) during the Service

Thought for the weekend: there are none so blind as those who will not see.

Some of the really important things in life cannot be seen with physical sight. We cannot begin to understand the plight of those born blind at the time of Jesus. Bartimaeus must have had a horrible life as a person with blindness, it meant that he would spend the whole of his life regarded as a drain on the resources of those around him. Yet, somehow, he believed that all this would not matter to Jesus. This can serve as an encouragement to us all to believe that, no matter what other people might think of us, we matter to Jesus. This is what being the Messiah is all about for Jesus. Bartimaeus was blind but there was nothing wrong with his spiritual vision. He recognised who Jesus was. May we, by God's grace, share the vision of Bartimaeus.

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEKEND:

This is a prayer that we may open to listen and to learn from all, irrespective of their physical appearance:

O Jesus Christ, teacher and healer, you heard the cry of the blind beggar when others would have silenced him. Teach us to be attentive to the voices others ignore, that we might respond through the power of the Spirit to heal the afflicted and to welcome the abandoned for your sake and the sake of the gospel. Amen.

Bell Ringers: Thank you to our Bell Ringers.
