WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS! We hope you find all you need to participate in the service, but please ask if you need help.

We have a hearing induction loop and the service is livestreamed. PLEASE NOTE: If you do not wish to be seen on camera, the North Aisle (by the Blue Corner) is out of view, and communion can be brought to You. Just mention this to one of our Welcomers

* A SPECIAL WELCOME TO PARENTS. If you have brought children with you today, we are delighted to have them with us. Please sit where you can see comfortably and follow what's going on. There is an area at the back of church (the 'Blue Corner') with colouring sheets and quiet toys for you to use if needed. You will find toilets, including baby changing facility, through the Vestry.

Please switch mobile phones off (or put on silent) during the Service

Thought for the weekend: Getting our priorities right.

Often people their reputation, or their qualifications, to try to impress us. However, we do well to remember that sometimes the very best things we can learn come from those who are closest to us. We are taught to try to be successful at what we do. We all want to give of our best and hopefully be appreciated for what we do. Jesus did many amazing things, but he was not always appreciated. In fact, sometimes even his closest friends and family rejected Jesus and thought he was getting too big for his boots. Jesus knew what it was like to seem to fail in ministry. In his hometown of Nazareth, he was just not able to make an impact, and he prepared his own disciples for failure when he sent them out on their own mission tour. There is an important lesson for us all here. When we follow Christ and do his will we should always be prepared for rejection and failure. As Lynn Anderson sang so beautifully, God also "never promised us a rose garden".

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEKEND: This is another beautiful prayer written by Bishop Thomas Ken who lived around the beginning of the eighteenth century: Though we cannot love you as we ought, O Lord, let us love you as we are able, that guided by your light and kept by your power, we come at the last, into your glorious presence. Amen.
