Thought for the weekend: Give us THIS DAY our daily bread

Jesus makes a very simplistic statement in the Holy Gospel reading this weekend: 'he who comes to me shall not hunger and he who believes in me shall not thirst. 'In response, it is reasonable to ask what about the millions of people who have no water, or adequate food? Clearly Jesus was not speaking about physical food and water. Rather, Jesus asserts himself as the spiritual answer to the hunger and thirst of the human spirit. It might seem as if there are just too many problems to deal with all at once. In truth we all live very complex and sometimes over indulgent lives. What is really important in our daily living? What are our basic needs when all of the frivolous stuff is removed? The Lord's Prayer is helpful, Jesus encourages his disciples to pray for daily bread, not cars or homes or even the bread for tomorrow, just bread enough for today. If we can reassess our lives and get our priorities right, then truly we will never hunger or thirst again.

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEKEND:

This is a prayer that we might be fed with the bread of heaven: Gracious God, we praise your Name and we thank you for your bountiful and generous love. We call upon you this day and ask that you would help us seek the blessings which endure unto eternal life. Help us open our hearts to your inward presence, our minds to the messages that you write upon the passing hours and days, and our souls to the refreshing winds of your Spirit. Feed us with the bread of heaven and grant that our prayer and our praise might be acceptable unto you, and that our words and our actions might glorify you, both now and forevermore. Amen
