WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS! We hope you find all you need to participate in the service, but please ask if you need help.

We have a hearing induction loop and the service is livestreamed. PLEASE NOTE: If you do not wish to be seen on camera, the North Aisle (by the Blue Corner) is out of view, and communion can be brought to You. Just mention this to one of our Welcomers

** A SPECIAL WELCOME TO PARENTS. If you have brought children with you today, we are delighted to have them with us. Please sit where you can see comfortably and follow what's going on. There is an area at the back of church (the 'Blue Corner') with colouring sheets and quiet toys for you to use if needed. You will find toilets, including baby changing facility, through the Vestry.

Please switch mobile phones off (or put on silent) during the Service

Thought for the weekend: where would you like to sit in the Kingdom of Heaven?

James and John approached Jesus with a request, they wanted a guarantee that when Jesus gained power he would share it with them. They had understood that Jesus was about to bring in a new world order, but they failed to understand just how different it would be. Jesus was about to embark upon his triumphant entry into Jerusalem, and the crowds who would cheer him will make the same mistake. The revolution which Jesus was about to start would not just exchange one set of rulers for another, Jesus was about to reverse the very understanding of power itself. In his kingdom the first would be last, the master would be the slave. Those who wanted the finest seats should seek out those at the bottom of the table. This was the age of the servant and Jesus was to be the Servant King. All around us we see the games of politics and power played out, in governments, churches our places of work. This weekend let us question our own understanding of power and to ask ourselves 'where do we want to sit?'

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEKEND:

This is a prayer for mutual love and understanding, that we may be servants of each other:

O God, you have called men and women of every land to be a holy nation, a royal priesthood, the Church of your dear Son; unite us in mutual love across the barriers of race and culture, and strengthen us in our common task of being Christ and showing Christ to the world He came to save. Amen

Bell Ringers: Thank you to our Bell Ringers.
