and rejoice in their triumph; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS! We hope you find all you need to participate in the service, but please ask if you need help.

We have a hearing induction loop and the service is livestreamed. PLEASE NOTE: If you do not wish to be seen on camera, the North Aisle (by the Blue Corner) is out of view, and communion can be brought to You. Just mention this to one of our Welcomers

* A SPECIAL WELCOME TO PARENTS. If you have brought children with you today, we are delighted to have them with us. Please sit where you can see comfortably and follow what's going on. There is an area at the back of church (the 'Blue Corner') with colouring sheets and quiet toys for you to use if needed. You will find toilets, including baby changing facility, through the Vestry.

Please switch mobile phones off (or put on silent) during the Service

Thought for the weekend: do we have what it takes to be a saint?

The Book of Daniel in the Old Testament is set in the days of the exile in Babylon and was probably written around 165 BC. It was written to give hope to the Jews who were suffering persecution under Antiochus IV Epiphanes, a Hellenistic ruler who tried to eliminate Judaism. The revelation through Daniel reminds us that our earthly kingdoms, however powerful they may appear, will pass away to make way for the kingdom of God. As we remember those saints who have gone before us over the centuries, we see the truth of the message of Daniel. Many kingdoms have passed away in the centuries since the book of Daniel was written, but the kingdom of God remains strong through His people on earth. Earthly lives may pass away, but as Christians we are part of God's holy and heavenly kingdom, an inheritance which will last for all eternity. We are all saints in the eyes of God.

Prayer for the weekend, this is a prayer that we might live as saints:

Holy God you have called witnesses from every nation and revealed your glory in their lives. Grant us the same faith and love that, following their example, we may be sustained by their fellowship

Bell Ringers: Thank you to our Bell Ringers.

Harrow Interfaith Group are organising a walk on Monday 11 November for Interfaith week. The walk will start at the old telephone exchange Hatch End at 10.15am. They will visit Kol Chai Synagogue, where there will be a talk. They will then walk to All Saints, arriving approximately 11.45am for a talk about our church and hot drinks will be served. The walk will then return to Hatch End via St Therasas Church. We have been invited to join the walk or meet them at the church.
