WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS! We hope you find all you need to participate in the service, but please ask if you need help.

We have a hearing induction loop and the service is livestreamed. PLEASE NOTE: If you do not wish to be seen on camera, the North Aisle (by the Blue Corner) is out of view, and communion can be brought to You. Just mention this to one of our Welcomers

* A SPECIAL WELCOME TO PARENTS. If you have brought children with you today, we are delighted to have them with us. Please sit where you can see comfortably and follow what's going on. There is an area at the back of church (the 'Blue Corner') with colouring sheets and quiet toys for you to use if needed. You will find toilets, including baby changing facility, through the Vestry.

Please switch mobile phones off (or put on silent) during the Service

Thought for the weekend: Are we ever hypocrites?

Our TV's and social media are filled with images of those regarded as successful and we are encouraged to try and become like "famous" people by using their shampoo or cologne. They are presented as aspirational characters and young people especially are given role models of these people, who are usually stars of film or sport. Yet the rich and famous are too often poor examples for us or our children. With their failed relationships and dysfunctional lifestyles, they are frequently more to be pitied than copied. We need to identify better examples of authentic living; types of behaviour which are more constructive and contribute to the happiness of ourselves and others. In the Bible we read that people said of Jesus 'He has done everything well', now that really is a lifestyle worth looking at. May we always try to do everything well.

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEKEND:

This is a prayer for help with doing everything well: Lord Jesus on this day we remember when you opened the ears of the man who was deaf, open our ears to your voice and may we spread abroad the story of your love and compassion which reaches out and makes us well. Amen
